

Integrity is an international consultancy and service provider. We specialise in working in complex and challenging contexts across the globe. The expert services we offer operate at the intersection of a range of themes key to transformation and change.

CLIMATE SECURITY

The interface between climate breakdown, human security and societal impact is changing and complex. There are multiple associated but debated manifestations including water stress, land conflict, food scarcity, natural disasters and environmental migration. Based on rigorous research and evidence, we work with our clients to comprehend and address these pivotal and defining challenges. ”

Anthony Ellis, Integrity CEO and founder

Our ambition for climate security

Climate change and biodiversity loss is one of the greatest risks to human security, from the community right through to the global level. Addressing these challenges requires an ambitious approach, which we support in three key ways.

Our climate security offer

We mainstream climate security throughout the programme cycle, drawing on innovative research, design, and monitoring, evaluation and learning approaches.

Our review aimed to identify lessons and recommendations to inform future climate security work under the new Integrated Security Fund (ISF).
